

Prayer

Blessed are you, O God,
ruler of the universe.

The earth, the stars,
even galaxies yet discovered
are the works of your hands.

And we, your creatures, stand in awe.

Shelter, protect, comfort all who are in harm's way (especially).

When calamities abound,
give us the strength to endure,

and hope for restoration,
that we may reflect your light for this ailing world.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.
