

The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Building Bridges in the Body of Christ

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. -Ephesians 4:4-6

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA)
Celebrates living in full communion with
The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Let's take some time to celebrate our similarities and differences.

Members: 2.6 million

Congregations: 11,178

Sacraments: Holy Baptism and Holy Communion

Origin: Part of the Reformed family of Protestantism, descending from John Calvin. The largest Presbyterian denomination in the USA, established in 1983 out of the former Presbyterian Church in the United States, a southern branch of American Presbyterianism, and the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, a northern branch

Clergy: Women and men educated in 10 seminaries and at numerous colleges and universities throughout the U.S.

Worship traditions: Liturgical and Blended

Best Known For: Church's faith guided by The Book of Confessions—A collection of ten creeds and confessions from the early Church, the Reformation, and the twentieth century.

It is everyone's job - ministers and lay people alike - to share this Good News with the whole world.
