

YOUNG ADULT ECUMENICAL FORUM ON ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE
JULY 26-29, 2007 BOSTON, MA

Participant Registration Packet

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? –Micah 6:8

The purpose of the 2007 Young Adult Ecumenical Forum is to respond faithfully to God's call as announced in the book of the Hebrew Prophet Micah. Through education, reflection, dialogue and community action, we hope to create a movement through which young adults can grow as an ecumenical community, participate in spiritual formation, forge a safe space for dialogue on contentious issues, and work for justice in their communities.

*You visit the earth and water it, you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water;
you provide the people with grain, for so you have prepared it. – Psalm 65:9*

As people of faith, we are deeply concerned about justice and the integrity of all creation. Issues of poverty, violence, hunger, and access to resources are contingent upon environmental sustainability and ecological care. Therefore, the mission of the 2007 Young Adult Ecumenical forum is to raise questions about environmental justice and propose means of announcing good news for all of our ecosystem.
